SUDDEN DEATHS.—There occurred near Mt. Zion Church, in Berkeley Co., the latter part of last week, the most heart-rending and lamentable-not to say singular mortality-that we have ever been called upon to record .-Three youths—Edgar Miller, son of W. Miller—Michael Henry, son of Philip Henry, and Willie Gorrell, grandson of Mrs. Eliza Gorrell, all living in the same neighborhood and attending school at Mt. Zion Church, were taken sick about the same time—Friday afternoon of last week—upon returning from school; Edgar Miller dying on the following day, Michael Henry upon the following Sabbath, and Willie Gorrell on Monday, So sudden was the death of young Miller, that we understand a physician sent for did not arrive in time to administer any remedies-even could anything have proved efficacious, but in the case of the other two several physicians were in attendance upon them, but their united skill was of no avail.

Our information is that all the physicisms present pronounced the disease—if disease it was-the most singular of any occurring in their experience. The whole nervous system was prostrated from the first of the attack, and although their best efforts were directed to produce reaction, yet all known remedies failed, and Saturdays, at 12 o'clock m., and arrives at and the patients rapidly sank until death ended Alexandria at 2½ o'clock p. m., following days. their sufferings .- Charlestown Spirit of Jeffer-
